How to Nip a Cold or Cough in the Bud.

To let a cold or cough "wear itself out" is both needless and dangerous. If you will take five minutes and make up the simple remedy described below, you can wipe out a cold or cough as soon as it appears. Even deep-seated coughs yield to it very quickly. A whole pint of it costs only 64 cents, but there is no better remedy at any price.

P. J. MORAN'S PLANT BURNS

Asphalt Works Destroyed in Manner Similar to Burning of Salt Lake Factory.

(Special to The Herald-Republican.)
Ogden, Oct. 23.—The burning of a pot of asphalt at the P. J. Moran works on West Twenty-fourth street early this morning caused a fire that destroyed the plant, entailing a loss of about $40,000 and delaying the work of paving the streets of Ogden for three hours. The fire broke out at 6 o'clock this morning. The flames were seen darting from the roof of the asphalt shed. The sounding of the railroad whistles and a telephone alarm summoned the apparatus from the central station. For three hours the firemen worked to save portions of the plant and the large quantities of asphalt in the barrels near the boiling pots, from which the fire had started. About 9 o'clock they succeeded in extinguishing the flames.

EXPECTS AN EASY TIME

Woman for Whose Capture $500 Will Be Paid Is Westbound.

(Special to The Herald-Republican.)
Ogden, Oct. 23.—"From the looks of the time table I see I have still many hours before I have to do much real bothering about what is going to happen to me in Salt Lake. I am on one of the fastest trains in the business, according to a slick-tongued railroad clerk in the Chicago office, but, after figuring out the time card, I see where I could have beaten this train several hours had I taken another."

SHE DECLARES HER CAPTORS WILL HAVE TO WORK HARD.

(Special to The Herald-Republican.)
Denver, Oct. 23.—"I am a red-headed chap, with a yellow mustache. In the Denver train shed assured me, however, a few moments ago, that the chances were I would make just as good time on the train I had selected, 'as chances are,' he said, 'the other will reach Salt Lake half a dozen hours later.'"

PRESCRIPTION FOR KIDNEYS

Said to Be the Best Ever Compounded for Kidney and Bladder Complaints.

Too much emphasis cannot be laid on care of the kidneys and bladder. Weak or inactive kidneys lead to most serious and complicated consequences, such as chronic rheumatism, diabetes or Bright's disease. For this reason, such symptoms as pain in the back, rheumatic pains in the joints, frequent or highly-colored urination, soreness in the groin or hip, dizziness, puffiness under the eyes, etc., should be attended to without delay. The following prescription is known to be highly endorsed by high medical authority: "One-half ounce Mux compound, one-half ounce Pure extract. These ingredients can be bought separately and mixed at home or any good druggist can put them up. For best results, take in doses of one to two teaspoonfuls three times a day, after meals. Taken in time, this treatment is the best obtainable."

DOUBTLESS DIMPLES ARRIVES MONDAY

Woman for Whose Capture $500 Will Be Paid Is Westbound.

MORITZ MEHESY FUNERAL TODAY

Services Over Body of Pioneer Fur Merchant Will Be Held.

Mrs. Elizabeth Mehesy arrived last night from Long Beach, Cal., to attend the funeral of her husband, Moritz Mehesy, the pioneer fur trader of this region, who died Thursday in this city.

"That sounds pretty good to me. If the railroads don't have to bother about a trifling thing as getting their trains in and out of the city, I will not have much difficulty in evading those who are apt to get keen on my trail when the real chase after me begins in Salt Lake."

"However, that will be a matter for me to determine later on. It will take trains in within half a dozen hours of the fairly good line on which I intend to work I will have to contend with in Salt Lake after my arrival. It looks so easy to me right now that I almost hesitate to bother you, for it looks as though I might not be captured there before next summer."

"If the Pullman in which I am making this journey manages to keep on the track I should get into Salt Lake in about thirty days. That will give me a few hours before I get real busy. If I am not bothered too much Monday, I apprehend very little difficulty in making all arrangements for the success of my carrying out of my work. To those who are of the opinion that it will be impossible for me to elude capture when once I start the ball rolling, my advice is to please forget it."

Mrs. Clarence H. Mackay Defines Her Position Regarding Suffrage.

New York, Oct. 23.—Mrs. Clarence H. Mackay, having been asked to define the purposes and the position of the Equal Franchise society, of which she is the president, gave out the following statement for publication:

"The purpose of the Equal Franchise society is to promote the welfare of women by securing the national, state and local electoral franchise for women, because the Equal Franchise society believes in the political and civil equality of men and women. The electorate should represent the whole nation, and a system of government in which one-half of the nation are disfranchised is not a truly representative national system. We are inviting people to become members of our society in order to contribute to the advancement of public education by the promotion of our cause."

Militant Methods Unnecessary.

"We feel that in order to secure the enfranchisement of women it is not necessary for us to imitate methods which are being used in other countries. American manhood has always treated American womanhood with a way as to make us feel that we shall ultimately achieve our aim without sensationalism. I will not endorse the militant methods. I have been repeatedly said to me by men in public life and men in private life that when women of the United States unite in demanding the vote they will get it. And I think that is perfectly true, and that therefore, what is needed further the suffrage cause is to give all sorts and kinds of women the opportunity of listening to speakers who will explain just what the suffrage will mean to us all. Most of the women I have met are apparently willing to co-operate with us, and have listened to what we have said with courtesy and consideration. It is not so necessary in the past, and I do not think it will be necessary in the future, for us to go out to the street corners and shriek our propaganda at the passerby. We have but to plead our cause without raising our voice to those men and women who are not with us. We can always assume that they are not willfully ignorant of what women suffrage should mean. We want to see that the fact that throughout the country the strongest suffragists are those women who devote their best energies towards the development of their children in order to make our citizens worthy of our great country."

in this coming election. We prefer to leave politics alone until our sex is sharing the responsibility with the other sex. I feel that the main reason for suffrage is community of interests between the sexes. It is not in any sense a fight for right, but the logical evolution of justice. The Equal Franchise society wishes to establish a platform upon which such speakers as Bishop McVicar of Rhode Island, Mr. Everett Colby and perhaps Mr. Martin W. Little, who express their belief in suffrage, and for that reason we have leased the Garden theatre and arranged our course.

"We wish to enlist that part of the community, regardless of sex or creed, who will co-operate with us because of their loyalty to their country. Among the most recent additions to our membership are such women as Mrs. William Schifflin, Mrs. Milton Barger, Mrs. Rudolph Schirmer, Mrs. Archibald Alexander, Mrs. Everett Colby, Mrs. Richard Stevens, Mrs. Walter Maynard, Mrs. Spence, Mrs. Paul Morton, Mrs. Elizabeth Burchinal, Miss Dorothy Whitney and many others, as can be seen on our list."

WIZARD'S WARDS GIVE A BANQUET

Subjects of Puissant Monarch Intend to Increase His Prestige.

PREPARE A CELEBRATION

FIESTA THAT WILL COMPARE WITH MARDI GRAS ARRANGED.

"There's no use your trying to get out of the doors without jolting your name on that list for $5 to become a Ward of the Wizard of the Wasatch. We have policemen at the door, and the board of governors of the Commercial club has attached the hats and coats out in the check room. So get busy."

But before the warning of Joseph E. Caine, who acted as toastmaster at the Dutch lunch and smoker at the Commercial club last night, many names had gone down on the list, and when the final count was taken, 114 signatures appeared on the lists representing many of the most prominent bankers, business and professional men in Salt Lake City.

It was a great evening, and if the Wizard could have come down from his white palace he would have been elated at the enthusiasm aroused at the mention of his name. It was given out officially that the Wizard would appear in Salt Lake some time next summer, and the Wards will begin at once preparing for the reception of the great personage. It will be a reception and carnival which will rival any other event in the history of Salt Lake go glimmering.

The smoker was a distinct success from start to finish, and insured the Festival of the Wizard of the Wasatch for next year, to ask the Wizard to leave him behind him when he came to Salt Lake in 1910, and to warn those present that they could not leave before signing as Wards of the Wizard, with a payment of $5 for the honor.

Then he introduced the Rev. P. A. Simpkin. "Parson" Simpkin told what the festival meant to him—an awakening of the Salt Lake public to the carnival spirit and a better feeling of good fellowship. He said the idea had originated in the brain of Fisher Harris, and hoped the secretary of the Commercial club would recover his health.
